1. Name:

- i. The name of this organisation is the European Psychiatric Association (EPA), referred to throughout this document as “the EPA”.

2. Definition of Europe and European countries:

- i. The definitions of “Europe”, “European” and “European countries” shall refer to the classification of world regions and countries used by the World Health Organisation (WHO).

3. Registration, Domicile and Administrative Office:

- i. The European Psychiatric Association (EPA) is the official title of an Association registered with the Registrar of Associations (volume 46, no. 63) at the Strasbourg Tribunal d' Instance. The Association shall be subject to the provisions of Articles 21 to 79 of the local Civil Code in force in the French Counties of Haut-Rhin, Bas-Rhin and Moselle, under the Act of 1 June 1924 governing the introduction of French civil legislation, and of these Articles of Association.
- ii. The Administrative Office of the EPA is at 15 avenue de la Liberté, 67000 Strasbourg, France. The Administrative Office' location is subject to decision of the Extraordinary General Assembly.

4. Status, Nature, Liability:

- i. The EPA is a non-profit association.
- ii. The financial resources of the EPA may not be allocated to its members but shall be used only for the purposes set out in (8) below.

5. Duration:

- i. The EPA shall not be limited in duration, unless dissolved.

6. Language:

- i. The language of the EPA for the purpose of official business, minutes and communications is French and English.

7. Jurisdiction:

- i. All agreements and matters pertaining to the EPA are subject to the relevant laws and the jurisdiction of the Courts of the country of domicile as in (3.i.) above.

8. Aims, Objectives, Purpose:

- i. The purpose of the Association is to improve the quality of mental health care throughout Europe, by:
 - a. enhancing the standard of psychiatric education and training
 - b. creating Sections to explore and solve problems in different specific areas of psychiatry
 - c. promoting excellence in psychiatric research and clinical practice
 - d. encouraging progress in psychiatric clinical practice
 - e. supporting the development of public health policies relevant to mental health
 - f. disseminating information about psychiatric research and practice
 - g. contributing to initiatives improving ethical standards of psychiatric care
 - h. encouraging professional interchange/exchange between European Psychiatrists
 - i. representing European Psychiatry in the framework of the various European Institutions
 - j. providing a unified organisation representing the different national psychiatric associations in European Psychiatry; along with individual psychiatrists

9. Activities, Means:

- i. The means of attaining these ends shall consist more particularly of:
 - a. Organizing European Congresses of Psychiatry, other meetings and courses
 - b. Appointing special Committees, groups or individuals for purposes related to furthering the aims of the EPA.
 - c. Publishing journals, including European Psychiatry, books, papers, online and other material.
 - d. Disseminating information through journals and books.
 - e. Publicizing its activities by all appropriate means.
 - f. Collaborating with other organisations in so far as they have shared aims with the EPA.
 - g. Refraining from party political or religious activities.

10. Membership:

10.1. Definition of Members:

- i. The EPA is an association of National Society/Association Members; and of qualified individuals in the form of Individual Members, Fellows, Emeritus Members, Honorary Members, International Individual Members, Associate Members, Student Members and Affiliate Members; and of Donor Members, and of Associate Organisations.
- ii. Membership shall commence and become effective after receipt of any membership fees due to the EPA and following a written declaration of acceptance issued by the EPA.

10.2. Membership Fees:

- i. National Society/Association Members, Individual Members, Fellows, Associate Members, Student Members and International Individual Members shall pay an annual fee, the amount of which shall be approved by the Ordinary General Assembly upon proposal of the Board.
- ii. The Membership fee for National Society/Association Members shall be proportional to their own membership numbers and set as described in (i.) above.
- iii. Emeritus Members are granted a fifty percent discount on annual fees.
- iv. Honorary Members, Affiliate Members and Associate Organisation Members shall not pay a fee.
- v. Donor Members should make contributions.

10.3. Assignment and Transfer:

- i. Membership in the Association may not be assigned or transferred.

10.4. National Society/Association Members:

- i. National Society/Association Membership is open to national psychiatry societies in a European country.
- ii. National Society/Association wishing to become a Member shall submit an application to the Secretary General of the EPA, together with a copy of its Statutes translated into English and a declaration signed by its President that reports the number of its own members, and confirms that it is a society or association composed primarily of psychiatrists, and confirms that the promotion of general psychiatry is a significant part of its activities.
- iii. Applications for National Society/Association membership shall be approved by a simple majority vote of the Board.
- iv. National Society/Association Members who are fully paid up shall have full voting rights at the Ordinary and Extraordinary General Assemblies subject to (v.) below.

- v. Voting by National Societies/Associations, in elections and in Extraordinary General Assembly, shall be on the basis of one to three votes per country and shall be calculated according to the number of members in the National Society/Association Members subject to (vii.) below.
- vi. For all other decisions in an Ordinary General Assembly, voting by National Societies/Associations shall be on the basis of one vote per country subject to (v.) above, unless any National Society/Association objects to this; in which case the voting will be as in (v.) above.
- vii. Where there is more than one National Society/Association Member in a country then a combined number of members in the National Society/Association Members from that country will define the number of votes allocated to that country. The National Society/Association Members from the same country will have to agree on how to share the vote allocated to their country at their own discretion.

10.5. Individual Members:

- i. Individual Membership is open to those who are citizens or residents of a European country or are licensed to work in a European country and are psychiatrists, or scientists working in the field of psychiatric research.
- ii. Any eligible individual wishing to become an Individual Member shall submit an application, with curriculum vitae, to the Secretary General of the EPA.
- iii. Individual Membership applications shall be approved by the Board.
- iv. Individual Members who are fully paid up shall have full voting rights at the Ordinary and Extraordinary General Assemblies.
- v. Individual Members who are fully paid up can stand for election to the Board.

10.6. Honorary Members:

- i. Honorary Membership may be conferred on any Individual Member or Fellow who has excelled in his/her service to the EPA.
- ii. Nominations for Honorary Membership shall be submitted by an Individual Member or Fellow of the EPA to the Secretary General of the EPA.
- iii. Nominations for Honorary Membership shall be endorsed by a simple majority vote of the Board and then referred for election by the Ordinary General Assembly.
- iv. Honorary Members have the right to attend and vote in the Ordinary and Extraordinary General Assemblies and can stand for election to the Board.

10.7. Fellows:

- i. The status of Fellow can be conferred on fully paid up EPA Individual Members, and who meet either of the following criteria in (ii.) or (iii.) below.
- ii. They have made significant contributions to the advancement of knowledge about, yet not limited to, risk factors, pathogenesis, diagnosis, classification, treatment or prevention of mental disorders, or to the development of psychiatric practice or services, including education.
- iii. They have made an outstanding contribution and significantly promoted the fulfillment of the aims of the EPA, as documented by a series of successful activities.
- iv. EPA Individual Members may be nominated for election as a Fellow by an Individual Member or Fellow of the EPA by submission of a written nomination to the Secretary General of the EPA.

- v. Nominations for Fellows shall be endorsed by a simple majority vote of the Board and then referred for election by the Ordinary General Assembly.
- vi. Fellows who are fully paid up have the right to attend and vote in the Ordinary and Extraordinary General Assemblies and may stand for election to the Board.

10.8. Emeritus Members:

- i. Emeritus Membership can be conferred by the Secretary General upon request to Individual Members and Fellows who have officially retired from their work.
- ii. Emeritus Members who are fully paid up have the right to attend and vote in the Ordinary and Extraordinary General Assemblies but cannot stand for election to the Board.

10.9. International Individual Members:

- i. Psychiatrists and psychiatric researchers who are not citizens or residents of a European country, or who are not authorised to practice in a European country, may become International Individual Members.
- ii. The application and approval procedures are identical to those applicable to Individual Members.
- iii. International Individual Members may attend the Ordinary and Extraordinary General Assemblies as observers but do not have the right to vote or to stand for election to the Board.

10.10. Affiliate Members:

- i. All members of fully paid up National Society/Association Members of the EPA shall automatically be deemed to be Affiliate Members of the EPA subject to (ii.) below.
- ii. National Society/Association Members shall ensure necessary consultation with their members regarding EPA Affiliate membership.
- iii. Affiliate Members have the right to apply for Individual Membership of the EPA.
- iv. Affiliate Members may attend the Ordinary and Extraordinary General Assemblies of the EPA as observers but do not have the right to vote or to stand for election to the Board.

10.11. Donor Members:

- i. Donor Membership may be conferred on public or private entities that establish longstanding collaboration with the Association and commit themselves to support regularly its activities; or any natural or legal person having made a special contribution to the development of the Association through one or more donations.
- ii. Any Individual Member or Fellow or National Society/Association Member of the EPA may propose a candidate for Donor Membership in writing to the Secretary General of the EPA.
- iii. Nominations for Donor Membership shall be endorsed by a simple majority vote of the Board and then referred for election by the Ordinary General Assembly.
- iv. Donor Members can attend the Ordinary and Extraordinary General Assemblies but are not entitled to vote.

10.12. Associate Members:

- i. Professionals who are working in the field of psychiatry/Mental Health, who are neither psychiatrists nor researchers in psychiatry (for ex. general practitioners, psychologists, neurologists, psychiatric nurses, social workers) may become Associate Members.

- ii. The application and approval procedures are identical to those applicable to Individual Members.
- iii. Associate Members may attend the Ordinary and Extraordinary General Assemblies as observers but do not have the right to vote or to stand for election to the Board.

- i. University students enrolled full-time in an educational institution (upon annual proof of full-time status) may become Student Members.
- ii. The application and approval procedures are identical to those applicable to Individual Members.
- iii. Student Members may attend the Ordinary and Extraordinary General Assemblies as observers but do not have the right to vote or to stand for election to the Board.

10.15. Termination of Membership:

- i. Membership in the case of Individual, International Individual, Emeritus, Honorary, Associate and Student Members and Fellows shall cease in the following circumstances:
 - a. Upon submission of a letter of resignation to the Secretary General of the EPA
 - b. On death
 - c. Student membership shall lapse in the absence of annual proof of full-time student status being provided
- ii. Membership in the case of National Society/Association Members and Associate Organisation Members shall cease in the following circumstances:
 - a. Upon the submission of an official letter of resignation to the Secretary General of the EPA
 - b. Upon the dissolution, for any reason whatsoever, of the corporate entities, or if they are subject to an administration order or court-ordered liquidation
- iii. All classes of Membership shall cease following non-payment of Membership fees for three consecutive years unless determined otherwise by simple majority vote of the Board.
- iv. All classes of Membership may be terminated by the Board for serious misconduct, subject to a right of appeal to the Ordinary General Assembly.

11. Ordinary General Assembly:

11.1. Composition:

- i. The Ordinary General Assembly shall comprise the National Society/Association Members' voting representatives, Individual, Emeritus Members and Fellows of the EPA whose membership fees are fully paid up, and all the Honorary Members.
- ii. The National Society/Association Members' voting representatives who are present at the Ordinary General Assembly shall form the Council of National Societies/Associations.

- iii. The voting Individual, Emeritus, Honorary Members and Fellows who are present at the Ordinary General Assembly shall form the Council of Individual Members.

11.2. Responsibilities:

- i. The Ordinary General Assembly shall vote on the annual reports of the President, the Secretary General, the Treasurer, the Secretary for Sections, the Secretary for Education, the Editor in Chief and the Chairperson of the Council of National Societies/Associations.
- ii. It shall elect members to the Board.
- iii. It shall decide by vote on the creation, the discontinuation and the voluntary dissolution of Sections upon proposal by the Board.
- iv. It shall vote to appoint the Internal Auditors of the Association.
- v. It shall vote on approving the accounts of the previous financial year.
- vi. It shall vote on approving the annual Membership fee for National Society/Association Members, Individual, Fellow, Associate, Student and International Individual Members.
- vii. It shall define by vote the policy of the Association.
- viii. It shall appoint by vote Fellows as well as Honorary and Donor Members.
- ix. It shall decide on relations to be fostered with other Associations.
- x. It shall decide on the report stipulated in article L 612-5 of the French Commercial Code as submitted by the President.

11.3. Functioning:

- i. An Ordinary General Assembly shall be convened every year by the Secretary General. An additional Ordinary General Assembly may also be held virtually/remotely within the same year, upon decision of the Executive Committee (see 14.1.i.).
- ii. The Ordinary General Assembly may also be convened at the written request of a quarter of fully paid up members.
- iii. Notice of an Ordinary General Assembly shall be sent to all members by the Secretary General in the form of individual letter or electronic communication at least 15 days before the Ordinary General Assembly subject to (iv.) and (v.) below. The notice of an Ordinary General Assembly must include the agenda. The agenda is drawn up by the Secretary General in consultation with the President.
- iv. Where elections to the Board are scheduled in an Ordinary General Assembly, notice shall be sent out at least two months in advance by the Secretary General with an indication of the number of positions up for election.
- v. In the event of the EPA congress not being held in a particular year then an Ordinary General Assembly should be called to approve the accounts. In this exceptional case, the deadline for convening the Ordinary General Assembly would be six months in advance.
- vi. The quorum of the Ordinary General Assembly consists of 10% of the total number of fully paid up Individual, Emeritus Members, Fellows and Honorary Members, counted together, and 20% of fully paid up National Society/Association Members subject to (xi.) below.
- vii. The decisions of the Ordinary General Assembly shall be taken by a simple majority of the votes cast subject to (viii.) and (ix.) below. The votes by the Council of National Societies/Associations and the Council of Individual Members shall be counted together, unless any National Society/Association objects to this; in which case the same procedure as in case of elections will apply, which is specified in (ix.) below.

- viii. In case of elections to the Board, the candidates who receive the highest total votes cast of the Ordinary General Assembly shall be elected to the Board subject to (13.1.vii.).
- ix. In case of elections, the votes cast at the Ordinary General Assembly by the Council of National Societies/Associations and the Council of Individual Members shall each be deemed to constitute 50% of the total Ordinary General Assembly vote subject to (x.) and (xi.) below.
- x. Where fewer than ten of the countries eligible for EPA National Society/Association Membership are represented at the Ordinary General Assembly by fully paid up voting members then the votes of the Council of National Societies/Associations shall be deemed to constitute 25% and the votes of the Council of Individual Members shall be deemed to constitute 75% of the total Ordinary General Assembly vote.
- xi. If only one of the Councils is quorate, the votes of the Council of National Societies/Associations and the Council of Individual Members shall be counted together.
- xii. Only fully paid up voting members present at the Ordinary General Assembly may vote. Proxy votes are not allowed. Postal votes may be allowed only in case of Board elections if organised virtually/remotely.
- xiii. The Ordinary General Assembly may only adopt resolutions pertaining to items on the agenda.
- xiv. Voting shall be by show of official voting cards subject to (xv.) and (xvi.) below.
- xv. Any fully paid up voting member may propose that a secret ballot be held when a motion is voted upon. However, this must be seconded, and ratified by more than 50% of the votes of each Council counted separately.
- xvi. Any votes concerning individuals shall be by secret ballot.
- xvii. At any moment a member of the Ordinary General Assembly may ask for a vote to wind up a discussion. If such a motion is tabled the President may allow one further person to speak on the winding up proposal, after which a vote shall be taken on the winding up of the discussion.

12. Extraordinary General Assembly:

12.1. Composition:

- i. The Extraordinary General Assembly shall comprise the National Society/Association Members' voting representatives, Individual, Emeritus Members and Fellows of the EPA whose membership fees are fully paid up, and all the Honorary Members.
- ii. The National Society/Association Members voting representatives who are present at the Extraordinary General Assembly shall form the Council of National Societies/Associations.
- iii. The voting Individual, Emeritus, Honorary Members and Fellows who are present at the Extraordinary General Assembly shall form the Council of Individual Members.

12.2. Responsibilities:

- i. The Extraordinary General Assembly shall decide the following issues:
 - a. Amendments to the EPA Statutes
 - b. Change of the official address and/or Administrative Office
 - c. Dissolution of the Association
 - d. New problems not provided for by the existing Statutes

12.3. Functioning:

- i. The Extraordinary General Assembly shall be called by the Board; or by a written request by a quarter of the combined total of fully paid-up National Society/Association, Individual and Honorary Members and Fellows.
- ii. Notice of an Extraordinary General Assembly shall be sent to all members by the Secretary General in the form of individual letter or electronic communication at least 15 days before the Extraordinary General Assembly. The notice of an Extraordinary General Assembly must include the agenda. The agenda is drawn up by the Secretary General in consultation with the President.
- iii. The quorum of the Extraordinary General Assembly consists of 10% of the total number of fully paid up Individual, Emeritus Members, Fellows and Honorary Members, counted together, and 20% of fully paid up National Society/Association Members subject to (vi.) below.
- iv. If the quorum is not formed, a second procedure for voting will be organised by distance voting (whether postal voting or internet voting, the best secure means to be decided by the Secretary General) of all fully paid up voting members for the same agenda and subject to (v.) and (vi.) below.
- v. The decisions of the Extraordinary General Assembly shall be taken by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast subject to (vi.) below.
- vi. The balance of votes between the Council of National Societies/Associations and the Council of Individual Members shall be identical to the Ordinary General Assembly as in (11.3.ix.), (11.3.x.) and (11.3.xi.)
- vii. Only fully paid up voting members may vote at an Extraordinary General Assembly, including if distance voting is held (as per 12.3.iv. above). Proxy votes are not allowed.
- viii. Voting shall be by show of official voting cards subject to (ix.) below.
- ix. Any fully paid up voting member may propose that a secret ballot be held when a motion is voted upon. However, this must be seconded, and ratified by more than 50% of the votes of each Council counted separately.
- x. Any votes concerning individuals shall be by secret ballot.

13. Board:

13.1. Composition:

- i. The EPA shall be administered by a Board of 14 to 20 members.
- ii. The members of the Board shall be elected by the Ordinary General Assembly for a period of four years.
- iii. Candidatures for the Board shall be submitted electronically to the Secretary General no later than one month before the date of the election. Only fully paid up Individual Members, Fellows and Honorary Members shall be eligible for election to the Board.
- iv. The Secretary General shall draw up a list of eligible candidates and submit it to the Ordinary General Assembly together with an instruction about the voting procedure drafted by the Executive Committee.
- v. The term of office of Board members shall start immediately after the election at the EPA Ordinary General Assembly.
- vi. Board members may be elected for no more than three consecutive terms.
- vii. There shall be no more than two members of the Board from any one country.

- viii. The Chairperson of the Council of National Societies/Associations and the Chairperson of the Early Career Psychiatrists Committee shall be ex-officio in the Board for the terms of their mandates, subject to (i.) above.
- ix. The Presidents of the two leading European organisations representing respectively patients and families/carers shall be ex-officio in the Board, with full voting rights, for the terms of their mandates, subject to (i.) above.
- x. In the event that the Board is underrepresented in a given geographic region, the Board shall have the option of co-opting one additional full voting member for a two-year term subject to (i.) above.
- xi. In the event of one or several members vacating their positions prior to the end of their term of office, the Board may temporarily replace its members by co-optation of up to the same number of full voting members until the next Ordinary General Assembly.
- xii. Only fully paid-up Individual or Honorary Members or Fellows of the EPA shall be eligible for co-optation as in (x.) and (xi.) above.
- xiii. Membership of the Board shall cease due to death, resignation, loss of Membership in the Association, or the dissolution of the Association.
- xiv. Where a Board member is absent for two meetings of the Board within a twelve-month period, the Board may consider termination of membership in the absence of a satisfactory explanation.
- xv. The members of the Board shall not be paid.

13.2. Responsibilities:

- i. Each Board Member who is not an Executive Committee member or an Office Bearer should be allocated specific responsibilities, at the discretion of the President. These should then be approved by the Board.
- ii. The Board shall be vested with the broadest powers to act on behalf of the EPA and to perform any actions and operations that are not reserved for the Ordinary or Extraordinary General Assemblies, in particular:
 - a. Drawing up the policy and the guidelines of the Association.
 - b. Examining any proposal for submission to the Ordinary or Extraordinary General Assembly.
 - c. Electing Executive Committee and Office Bearers of the EPA as listed in (13.4) and (14).
 - d. Provisionally approving the annual accounts prepared by the Treasurer and submitting them for approval to the Ordinary General Assembly.
 - e. Approving applications for Individual and National Society/Association Membership, and nominations for Fellowship and Honorary Membership as per (10). The Board may delegate the approval of applications for Individual Membership to the Secretary General and the staff of the EPA Administrative Office.
 - f. Considering termination of membership as listed in (10.15).
 - g. Proposing the amount of the membership fees for approval of the Ordinary General Assembly subject to (10.2).
 - h. Making recommendations to the Ordinary General Assembly concerning the creation, maintenance and dissolution of the Sections.
 - i. Deciding on the purchase and sale of all moveable property and assets, purchasing and selling all securities, stocks and shares.
 - j. Leasing and acquiring any real estate required for the fulfillment of the Association's purpose, upon prior advice of the Ad Hoc Advisory Committee as per (16).
 - k. Granting all leases and mortgages on the real estate of the Association, selling or exchanging said real estate, upon prior consultation of the Ad Hoc Advisory Committee as per (16).
 - l. Taking out any loans and granting any guarantees, subject to informing the Ordinary General Assembly.
 - m. Deciding on the main themes of communication and public relations.
 - n. Approving the annual budgets and overseeing their implementation.

- o. Deciding on creation and dissolution of Operational Committees of the EPA, upon proposal of the President, and determining their roles, composition, duration and operating procedures.
 - p. Receiving minutes of all Operational Committees and the Executive Committee.
 - q. Assigning tasks and missions (such as task forces, representation) to Board Members and stipulating the nature of their functions and the scope of their powers.
 - r. Deciding on organising scientific meetings of the EPA.
 - s. Approving the place and dates of the European Congress of Psychiatry, upon the proposal of the Executive Committee.
 - t. Proposing the Internal Auditors (incumbents and alternates) to the Ordinary General Assembly.
 - u. Approving the Rules and Regulations of the Association.
 - v. Authorising actions and undertakings outside of the scope of the President's specific powers where appropriate.
 - w. Deciding on contractual matters regarding the Editors, including but not limited to their possible remuneration and contract renewal or revocation.
 - x. Deciding on the draft agreements stipulated in article L 612-5 of the French Commercial Code.
- iii. In exceptional circumstances, the Board may revoke the mandate of an Executive Committee member or Office Bearer by three-fourths majority vote.

13.3. Functioning:

- i. The Board shall meet at least once a year.
- ii. A Board meeting may be called by the President of the EPA upon notice of at least one month. The President shall draw up the agenda and propose the venue.
- iii. A Board meeting may also be called by more than half of its members upon notice of at least one month. In this case, such members may have the items of their choice included on the agenda.
- iv. The quorum for Board meetings shall be half of its current members.
- v. The Administrator of the EPA shall be invited to participate in the meetings of the Board as a non-voting adviser.
- vi. An Editor of the journal European Psychiatry, agreed upon by the Editors and the Board, if not a Board member, shall be invited by the President of the EPA to participate in the meetings of the Board as a non-voting participant.
- vii. Decisions shall be taken by a simple majority of the votes cast.
- viii. In the case of a tied vote then the President shall have a casting vote.
- ix. Minutes of the meeting, once approved by the Board, shall be signed by the President and the Secretary General and entered in a register at the EPA's Administrative Office.

13.4. Office Bearers:

13.4.1. President:

- i. The President shall be elected by the Board from amongst its members to a two-year term of office.
- ii. The elected President shall initially be the President-elect for a period of two years, followed by a two-year term as President, followed by a two-year term as Past-President.
- iii. The President shall be responsible for the day-to-day management of the EPA, acting on behalf of the Executive Committee, the Board and the EPA.
- iv. The President shall represent the EPA in all civil and legal matters.

- v. He or she shall have the power to act in the name of the Association and to sign documents and undertakings provided that they are consistent with these Statutes and the decisions of the Board.
- vi. The President should allocate specific responsibilities to the Board members who are not Executive Committee members or Office Bearers.
- vii. The President may propose to the Board creation and dissolution of Operational Committees of the EPA.
- viii. The President shall chair the sessions of the Ordinary and Extraordinary General Assemblies, chair and draw up the agendas of the Executive Committee, the Board and the Scientific Programme Committee, and be responsible for the implementation of the decisions taken by these bodies.
- ix. The President shall have the power to open and implement bank accounts and savings accounts in credit or financial institutions on behalf of the EPA.
- x. The President shall present the annual report of activities to the Ordinary General Assembly.
- xi. The President shall present to the Ordinary General Assembly the report stipulated in article L 612-5 of the French Commercial Code. He or she shall inform the members of the Board of the contents of said report prior to the Ordinary General Assembly.
- xii. Upon decision of the Board, the President may recruit, in consultation with the Executive Committee, a salaried Administrator to support him or her in the day-to-day management of the Association's services.

- i. All candidates for election to official positions within the EPA shall complete a written Conflict of Interest declaration to be submitted alongside their nomination.
- ii. All official meetings of the EPA shall include an agenda item "Declaration of Conflict of Interests" prior to the business of the meeting.

26. Definition and reciprocity of invited participants:

- i. Any person who is not a paid-up Member may be invited to attend part or all of EPA official meetings at the discretion of the President, or the Chair of that meeting if not the President, as an invited participant without voting right.

- ii. Where an invited participant attends as a representative of another organization then this shall be on condition of a reciprocal invitation to the EPA to send an invited participant to the equivalent meeting of that organization.
- iii. The EPA will not pay expenses for any invited participant attending any EPA meeting.
- iv. The number of invited participants attending shall be limited such that invited participants form a minority of attendees of that meeting

27. Tied votes:

- i. In the event of a tied vote in any EPA body (other than an election), then the EPA President, or if relevant, the Chair of that meeting, shall have a casting vote.

28. Meeting Attendance:

- i. Where a Board or Committee member is unable to attend two meetings of that body within a twelve-month period, then the Board will discuss and decide whether their membership should be terminated.
- ii. A decision by the Board to terminate the Committee or Board membership will take immediate effect.

29. Dissolution:

29.1. Procedure:

- i. The EPA may be dissolved at the request of the Board by an Extraordinary General Assembly convened specifically for that purpose subject to (ii.) below. One or more liquidators shall be appointed.
- ii. The EPA may be dissolved if both the Council of Individual members and the Council of National Societies/Associations each separately vote with a three-fourths majority in favour of dissolution.

29.2. Disposal of Assets:

- i. In the event of the dissolution of the EPA, its assets shall be given to an established European or international organization, with similar objectives, nominated by the Extraordinary General Assembly; or, failing this, to the state in the country of EPA's registration.
- ii. Notwithstanding the provisions of article (29.2.i.), the Real Estate Assets (as defined in the article 16) shall only be given to an association designated by a decision of the Ad Hoc Advisory Committee as per article 16.3 of the Statutes. The provisions of article (29.2.ii.) may only be amended with the prior consent of the Ad Hoc Advisory Committee, as per article 16.
