

Organised by

Implementing precision and preventive psychiatry in Europe

Wednesday,
21st September 2022,
13:00 - 17:30 pm CET

Hybrid meeting

Fondation Universitaire Stichting,

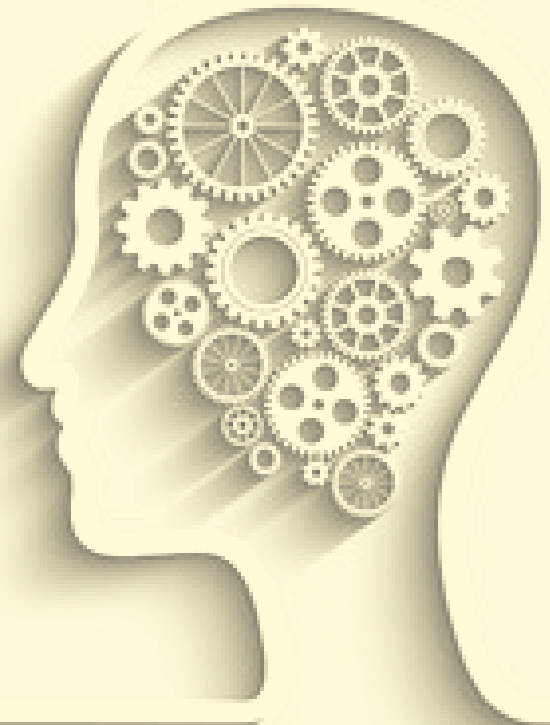

Rue d'Egmont 11,

1000 Brussels, Belgium

Online platform Zoom

Register
here

Highlights

- The importance of severe mental disorders research
 - Welcoming lunch starting at noon
 - Networking reception
 - Both in-person and virtual event
-

Discover more on ebra.eu

Organised by

Prevention of Mental Disorders
& Mental Health Promotion
ECNP Network

Bipolar Disorders
ECNP Network

PROGRAMME

12:00 - 13:00 pm CET

Lunch

13:00 - 13:15 pm CET

Welcome and introduction

- Prof. Paolo Fusar-Poli, Kings College London, the United Kingdom
- Prof. Ole Andreassen, University of Oslo, Norway

SESSION 1: The importance of precision psychiatry

13:15 - 13:30 pm CET

European Commission perspective on precision psychiatry

13:30 - 13:45 pm CET

Industry perspective on precision psychiatry

13:45 - 14:05 pm CET

Ethical considerations for precision psychiatry

- Prof. Mirko Manchia, Università degli Studi di Cagliari, Italy

14:05 - 14:35 pm CET

Panel discussion

- Moderator: Frédéric Destrebecq, European Brain Council, Belgium
- Panellists:
 - Dr. Florence Butlen, European Medicine Agency, the Netherlands
 - Dr. Jan Wise, European Psychiatric Association, Belgium
 - Tineke Molema, GAMIAN-Europe, Belgium

14:35 - 14:50 pm CET

Questions from the audience

14:50 - 15:10 pm CET

Coffee break

SESSION 2: Implementation of precision and preventive psychiatry

15:10 - 15:20 pm CET

Facilitating collaborative research

15:20 - 15:30 pm CET

How to navigate the current and existing legal and data protection frameworks to implement precision psychiatry?

- Dr Damian Okaibedi Eke, the Montfort University, Leicester, England

15:30 - 15:40 pm CET

Guideline development and stratification

15:40 - 15:50 pm CET

Regulation of biomarker qualification

15:50 - 16:00 pm CET

Questions from the audience

SESSION 3: Why is funding needed NOW in this field?

16:00 - 16:15 pm CET

Private organisations and philanthropic perspective

- Niall Boyce, Wellcome, the United Kingdom

16:15 - 16:30 pm CET

NIH Perspective on precision psychiatry

- Joshua Gordon, NIH, the United States

16:30 - 17:25 pm CET

Round table and questions from the audience

- Moderator: Frédéric Destrebecq, European Brain Council, Belgium
- Panellists: ALL

17:25 - 17:30 pm CET

Closing remarks

17:30 - 19:00 pm CET

Networking reception at University Foundation