

Laura Orsolini Biography

Laura Orsolini, M.D., Spec. GAP, Addiction and Forensic Psychiatry, MScPhD in Affective Disorders, Senior Researcher, Assistant Professor in Psychiatry and Clinical Psychology at the Unit of Clinical Psychiatry, Department of Clinical Neurosciences/DIMSC, Polytechnic University of Marche, Ancona, Italy. She coordinates youth mental health inpatient service and outpatient service for youth techno-based psychopathologies and digital addictions at the University Hospital of Marche Region, UNIVPM. She is also coordinator of clinical and research activities in the field of youth severe social withdrawal and internalizing disorders with/without comorbid digital addictions. Co-chair of the International Society of Addiction Medicine (ISAM)-NeXT; BOD member and Secretary of the EPA section on Digital Psychiatry; BOD member and Secretary of the EPA Section on Addictive Behaviours; member of the WPA Task Force on Digital Psychiatry; BOD member of the ECPC of the Italian Society of Psychiatry (SIP) and Italian Society of Social Psychiatry (SIPS). Member of the WPA Section on Addictions. Her main research fields include the New Addictions (including web-based psychopathologies, behavioural addictions), Youth Mental Health, Digital Psychiatry and Addiction psychopharmacology.