Dr. Ozge Kilic
Biography

Dr. Ozge Kilic, member secretary of the EPA Section on Neurodevelopmental Disorders across the Lifespan. She is an associate professor of psychiatry and a faculty member of Bezmialem Vakif University, Institute of Health Sciences, Department of Neurosciences. She also provides clinical assessments and ongoing treatments to ADHD patients at her clinic.

She served as coordinator of the Trainee Committee of the Psychiatric Association of Turkey and the chair of the Early Career Psychiatrists Committee of the European Psychiatric Association (EPA). She has been the primary investigator of 'The role of gender as a barrier to the professional development of psychiatrists' study conducted in 35 European countries. She was awarded the European Psychiatry Congress Early Career Psychiatrist scholarship, the World Psychiatric Association Early Career Psychiatrist fellowship and the World Psychiatric Association (WPA) Leadership and Professional Skills Course for Early Career Psychiatrists. She has published 50 articles including clinical guidelines and expert opinion articles in the field of ADHD, with 1870 citations and an h-index of 17.