

Prof. Thomas K J Craig Biography

Thomas Jamieson Craig (Tom Craig) MD PhD FRCPsych: Emeritus Professor of Social Psychiatry at the Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology and Neuroscience, King's College, London, Hon Consultant psychiatrist, South London and Maudsley Hospital and. Past President World Association of Social Psychiatry.

Tom was appointed to Kings College London as the first UK Professor of Community Psychiatry in 1990. He led the closure of a hospital asylum and the development of novel community mental health services. His research includes studies of homeless mental health, the LEO RCT for first episode psychosis and most recently, studies of AVATAR therapy for the treatment of auditory verbal hallucinations in psychosis.