

Child and Adolescent Psychiatry
Department and Adult Psychiatry
Department
Hospital General Universitario Gregorio
Marañon - Madrid, Spain

Description

The Department is large and has many programs. There is an inpatient unit and an outreach program, day hospitals and special program for neurodevelopmental disorders, first episode psychosis. Genetics and mental health, neuropsychiatry, perinatal psychiatry, personality disorders in adolescence, liaison with schools, primary and secondary prevention, treatment resistant cases, etc.

Specific Requirements: Spanish would be desirable for clinical and research interviews.

Type of placement: Research, Academic

Contact Person: Dr. Pura Moran

Head of Institution: Prof. Celso Arango

Duration

2 to 8 weeks depending on candidate availability

Accommodation

Not available

Meals

Not provided and not available on site

Financial Support

Not available

Additional Links

Institute of Psychiatry and Mental Health

EPA guidelines for applicants

APPLY NOW