

CME COURSE TITLE	Managing comorbid depression and diabetes
COURSE DIRECTOR	Prof. Norman Sartorius, SWITZERLAND
COURSE CO-DIRECTORS	Prof. Richard Holt, UNITED KINGDOM, Dr. Helen Millar, UNITED KINGDOM
COURSE LEVEL	Basic
EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES	After the course the participants should be better able to recognize and manage depressive disorders in people with diabetes (and diabetes in people with depression)
COURSE DESCRIPTION	A brief summary of the current state of knowledge concerning diabetes and depression will be followed by interactive instruction on the features of depression when comorbid with diabetes and vice versa. The focus of the course will be on the appropriate management of comorbid depression and diabetes. Interviewing and management options will be taught using case history scenarios and role play.
PREREQUISITE KNOWLEDGE	Postgraduate training in psychiatry or in general practice
COURSE METHODS AND MATERIAL	Small group discussions; case studies; role play; debate; slides; handouts
RECOMMENDED READINGS	Katon W, Maj M, Sartorius N (2010) Depression and Diabetes. Wiley-Blackwell ISBN 978-0-470-68838-0
LANGUAGES	English